

Task 4: Imagine you are Iago at the end of this scene. Write a short monologue to show how Iago is feeling at this stage of the play.

Ah, finally! Cassio shall finally be rid of, and with hope, Othello too, I have waited for long, and with no doubt this will work. I mean, look at Othello, he's an unstable wreck! Believing the most wild conspiracy, how stupid of him! Oh well, all the better for me. With Othello and Cassio eliminated, the power is mine. I am able to do as I like, without opposition. My dreams are finally a reality. Farewell Cassio, you shall not be missed.
