

The background of the slide is white and covered with numerous grey fingerprints of various sizes and orientations. In the center, there is a magnifying glass with a brown handle and a silver rim. The lens of the magnifying glass is focused on a single fingerprint, making it appear larger and more detailed than the others.

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Rotation 1: 2018/19

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment AUTUMN HALFTERM 1

In English lessons we are:

READING:

Using our inference and deduction skills to examine the following texts:

Roald Dahl's Lamb to the Slaughter

Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes and the Speckled Band

WRITING:

A focus on descriptive writing using our five senses and developing our own characters.

We will be writing the opening to a detective novel about a diamond theft from the Hinton family mansion

LITERACY: A continued focus on handwriting, figurative language with idioms and spelling of key words and key errors

In Humanities lessons we are:

Looking chronologically through the past at how crime and punishment has changed with a focus on:

- Romans
- Anglo-Saxons
- Tudors
- Highwaymen
- Victorians

As part of our topic we are also going to:

- Learn how to take fingerprints
- Create e-fit artwork
- Speak to a real life PCSO!
- Learn about different fictional detectives

We will be celebrating Roald Dahl's Birthday looking at James and the Giant Peach and learning to draw like the illustrator Quentin Blake!

In Maths we are revising & improving on our calculations with:

- Multiplication
- Division
- Addition
- Subtraction

Homework Tasks

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 17th September 2018

RESEARCH:

Research Roald Dahl, the author of Lamb to the Slaughter.

Find out the ten most interesting facts about him and write them in your book.

The student with the most interesting fact about him will win a prize!

MATHS:

Complete the sheet on multiplication that is stuck in your book.

The answers can be written out on the sheet.

HUMANITIES:

Complete the sheet about Roman crime and punishment that is in your book by filling in the missing words. The answers can be written out on the sheet.

SPELLINGS:

Learn the following spellings for a test on Monday:

1. Detective
2. Murder
3. Crime
4. Punishment
5. Suspect
6. Evidence

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 24th September 2018

ENGLISH:

Complete the book review sheet about Lamb to the Slaughter.

You need to come up with an illustration for the book, give it a rating, and complete the different sections of the review.

Remember your capital letters for names and titles!

MATHS:

Complete the sheet on multiplication that is stuck in your book.

The answers can be written out on the sheet but please show your working out

HUMANITIES:

Look at the source sheet with the photo of a Tudor punishment. Have a go at the questions. Answer in full sentences and use your imagination!

SPELLINGS:

Learn the following spellings for a test on Monday:

1. To
2. Too
3. Two
4. Quiet
5. Quite
6. There
7. Their
8. They're

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 1st October 2018

ENGLISH:

Can you correct the ten sentences on the sheet?

All of them are missing capital letters...and not just from the beginning of the sentences.

Remember MINTS:

Months and days

I

Names (people and places)

Titles

Start of sentences

MATHS:

Complete the 16 different 2 digit grid multiplication sums on the sheet.

Make sure you use the grid method as practiced in class.

HUMANITIES:

Family Fingerprints:

Take your finger print (as we practiced in class) and those belonging to your friends or family.

Can you identify their patterns?

SPELLINGS:

Learn the following spellings for a test on Monday:

1. Mystery
2. Stereotype
3. Responsible
4. Moustache
5. Intelligent
6. Suspicious

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 8th October 2018

ENGLISH:

Find at least six synonyms for the words on the sheet:

Small
Big Happy
Sad

You could use a thesaurus, your own knowledge or an online thesaurus to help you come up with some alternative WOW WORDS!

MATHS:

Complete the six different questions writing out the sum and answer in full in your book NOT ON THE SHEET! Show your working with a jumping decimal point if it helps!

HUMANITIES:

We have been looking at the Tudors in humanities lessons. Research one Tudor King or Queen and find out five facts about them! Present this information as you like!

SPELLINGS:

Learn the following spellings for a test on Monday:

1. Fiction
2. Non-Fiction
3. Descriptive
4. Adjective
5. Synonym
6. Idiom
7. Sherlock
8. Holmes

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 15th October 2018

ENGLISH:

Write a descriptive paragraph about the picture you have stuck in your books.

Remember to use:

- Show, don't tell!
- WOW words
- Capital letters
- Full stops
- Your five senses (or as many as you can)

Check your writing through once you have finished using the checklist above.

MATHS:

Complete the worksheet about decades, centuries and millennium. Think about how many years are in each and then complete the questions.

TOPIC:

Find ONE example of a piece of graffiti/art by Banksy and print it out and stick it in your book.

Underneath it, explain why you have chosen it, what you think it means and why you like it.

SPELLINGS:

Learn the following spellings for a test on Monday:

1. Detective
2. Inspector
3. Police
4. Gadget
5. Prison
6. Investigation
7. Victorian
8. Graffiti

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 29th October 2018

ENGLISH:

Read through the piece of text taken from an Enid Blyton mystery book that is stuck in your homework book and have a go at answering the questions.

Look at how many marks the questions are worth to give you an idea of how long your answers should be!

Remember to use the text to help you to answer the questions!

MATHS:

Your homework covers the different types of calculations we have been practicing so far this year. Write the answers in your book & show your working out!

HUMANITIES:

Imagine you are a Victorian living in London. Write a letter to the Queen asking her to stop public execution. Use the sheet in your book to help you plan and write your letter.

SPELLINGS:

Revise and go back through all the spellings set so far this year for a large test on the first Monday back after half term.

Whodunnit?

Detectives, Crime and Punishment

Homework Due: Monday 5th November 2018

FOR ALL YOUR SUBJECTS THIS WEEK:

Use your revision booklet this week to revise ready for your assessments that start next week.

To help you learn the information on the recall sheets in the booklet, there are a variety of different activities that you could do towards the back of your booklet.

Spend some time on each of the subjects, and remember to come and see me for help if there is anything you don't understand!