

Homework Questionnaire – April 2017

Homework questionnaire, April 2017, Results

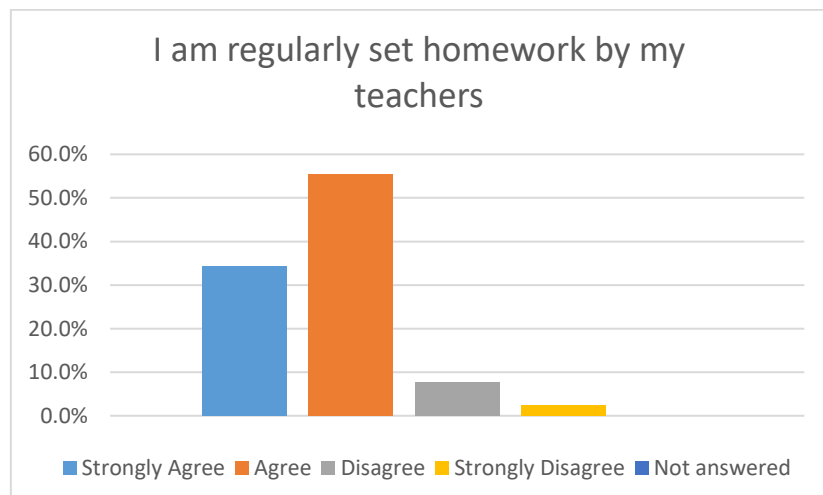

128 students, from across all year groups, were asked to respond to the following statements as either: strongly agree, agree, disagree or strongly disagree.

Q1. I understand why homework is important.

85% of students either strongly agree or agree that they understand why homework is important.

Q2. I am regularly set homework by my teachers.

89% of students either strongly agree or agree that they are regularly set homework by their teachers.

Homework Questionnaire – April 2017

Q3. The homework that I am set helps my learning.

84% of students either strongly agree or agree that the homework that they are set helps their learning.

Q4. I can go to teachers for help with my homework if I need to.

87% of students either strongly agree or agree that they can go to their teachers for help with their homework if they need to.

Homework Questionnaire – April 2017

Q5. I get feedback on my homework.

88% of students either strongly agree or agree that they get feedback on their homework.

Q6. The homework I am set challenges me.

88% of students either strongly agree or agree that the homework that they are set challenges them.

Homework Questionnaire – April 2017

Q7. The amount of homework I am set each week is...

49% of students said that they get too much homework each week, 45% of students said that the amount of homework they get each week is about right.