

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to you at the end of another successful and busy year at Fullhurst. As we look forward to the summer break, I would like to thank you on behalf of the staff and governors at Fullhurst for your continued support.

This academic year has seen the college go from strength to strength and our students and staff have done Fullhurst proud with successes in every area of school life. Just in this summer term, students have successfully completed end of year exams, attended work experience placements across Leicestershire and led primary school sports and languages days. We have also been shortlisted in three categories for the Leicester Mercury Heroes of Leicestershire awards, further details of which will be included in our summer term newsletter that you will receive before the end of term.

Next academic year we look forward to a range of exciting opportunities at the college. In September, we welcome a further 300 students into Year 7 who will be taught at our newly built Fosse Campus and later in the academic year we will be running trips to Paris, Belgium and Barcelona.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to remind you that the school term for students will end at 12.20pm on Friday July 12th and the new academic year will start on Monday 2nd September, with students expected at school at 8.40am promptly, in full uniform and equipped for learning.

Thank you once again for supporting our school.

Yours faithfully,

S Piggot
